

Using Irregular Verbs that Stay the Same in Simple Past and Past Participle Form

Directions: Complete the following sentences. Some of the irregular verbs below stay the same in simple past and past participle forms, and some do not. Write whether the verb “changes” or “stays the same” on the line to the right.

Example: He _____ (to have) a great time at the party last night. . _____

A great time was _____ (to have) at the party last night. _____

He had (to have) a great time at the party last night. . stays the same

A great time was had (to have) at the party last night. _____

1) They lost (to lose) their key yesterday. _____ stays the same
 Their key is lost (to lose). _____

2) The chef took (to take) four hours to cook dinner for us last night. _____ changes
 The chef had taken (to take) that long to cook dinner for us before. _____

3) Juan laid (to lay) his head on the pillow last night. _____ stays the same
 Juan’s head was laid (to lay) on the pillow last night. _____

4) The plane flew (to fly) all night long. _____ changes
 The plane has flown (to fly) all night long in the past. _____

5) I met (to meet) James for the first time yesterday. _____ stays the same
 I had never met (to meet) James before yesterday. _____

6) The family ate (to eat) dinner together last night. _____ changes
 The family hasn’t eaten (to eat) together in a long time. _____

7) Henry and Roberto spent (to spend) all the money last weekend. _____ stays the same
 All the money was spent (to spend) last weekend. _____

8) The robber shot (to shoot) the police officer yesterday. _____ stays the same
 A police officer has been shot (to shoot). _____

9) We drove (to drive) to the beach last summer. _____ changes
 We have driven (to drive) to the beach before. _____